

Contents

Bibliographical Abbreviations	vii
In Search of the Passages from Antiquity to the Middle Ages	ix
BERYL RAWSON
The Future of Childhood Studies in Classics and Ancient History	1
DIDIER LETT
Brothers and Sisters. New Perspectives on Medieval Family History	13
EVA CANTARELLA
Roman Marriage. Social, Economic and Legal Aspects	25
JUDITH EVANS GRUBBS
Children and Divorce in Roman Law	33
MARJA-LEENA HÄNNINEN
From Womb to Family. Rituals and Social Conventions Connected to Roman Birth	49
VÉRONIQUE DASEN
Blessing or Portent? Multiple Births in Ancient Rome	61
CHRISTIAN LAES
Childbeating in Antiquity: Some Reconsiderations	75
JANET HUSKINSON
Disappearing Children? Children in Roman Funerary Art of the First to the Fourth Century AD	91
MAURA LAFFERTY
Augustine, the Aenlid and the Roman Family	105

VILLE VUOLANTO Children and Asceticism. Strategies of Continuity in the Late Fourth and Early Fifth Centuries	119
NIKOS KALOGERAS The Role of the Parents and Kin in the Education of Byzantine Children	133
SARI KATAJALA-PELTOMAA Parental Roles in the Canonisation Processes of Saint Nicola of Tolentino and Saint Thomas Cantilupe	145
JUSSI HANSKA Education as an Investment. The Childhood of Pietro del Morrone in the Thirteenth Century Abruzzi	157
SUSANNA NIIRANEN Ensenhamen. Educational Ideal and Elite Women in Twelfth and Thirteenth Century Occitania	167
KATARINA MUSTAKALLIO Roman Funerals: Identity, Gender and Participation	179
MAURIZIO BETTINI Death and its Double. Imagines, Ridiculum and Honos in the Roman Aristocratic Funeral	191
MARXIANO MELOTTI Crossing Worlds: Space, Myths and Rites of Passage in Ancient Greek Culture	203
CHRISTIAN KUHN Remembering the Dead for the Sake of the Living. Family Values in the Bequests of the Nuremberg Tuchers (1450–1550)	215
MICHAEL GOODICH The Death of a Saint: a Hagiographical Topos	227
General Index	239
List of Contributors	253